ABSTRACT

This project is designed to computerize the different modules of NIC, Assam State Unit. With the development of the project the officials under those modules will feel an ease to do their jobs. The records of these modules can be maintained in a database and as a result of which the users of this software can generate orders without the occurrence of any errors by retrieving data from database.