

ABSTRACT

This project is designed to computerize the leave application system for the employees of Guwahati Refinery, Indian Oil Corporation Limited. With the development of the project, the employees can apply, extend, and cancel their leaves online. Also through this software they can apply for leave encasement. The records of the employees are stored in a database.