

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My Ph.D work is coming to an end. Reaching this stage has never been an easy path for me. It would have been impossible without the help and guidance of a few people to whom I would like to extend my fullest gratitude.

First and foremost, I would like to acknowledge and extend my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. Papor Baruah for her constant support, encouragement and invaluable guidance which has made the completion of this thesis possible. I am indebted towards her enormous assistance.

I express my deepest gratitude and veneration to esteemed members of my Doctoral Committee, Dr. Mrinmoy Kumar Sarma, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University, Assam, Dr. Chandan Gaswami, Professor Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University, Assam for their guidance and support. My sincere gratitude to Prof. Subhrangshu Sekhar Sarkar, Dean School of Management Sciences, Tezpur University, Assam, and Prof. Debabrata Das, Head department of Business Administration, Tezpur University, Assam for valuable suggestions and encouragement at various stages of the research work and thesis writing.

I would also take this opportunity to thank Dr. Chandana Goswami and Dr. Tridib Ranjan Sarma for their timely advice and guidance and all other faculty members and non-teaching staff of the Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University, for their assistance in the completion of this study. I would like to express my gratefulness to Tezpur University for providing all the necessary help for successful completion of this research work.

It gives me immense pleasure to recall the sweet memories which I have shared with my friends during this long period. I would like to especially thank Jayshree, Indrani and Juri for being such a wonderful friend in both good and bad times. I thank Upakul, Nitu, Meghali, Niranjana, Kalyani, Jayanta, Krishnashree, Anjuman and Tinum for their unconditional help.

Needless to say, I am indebted to my parents for their blessings, love, support and everything at every stage of my life. Their encouraging words are always motivating me to move ahead in life. I sincerely acknowledge the constant support, encouragement from my sister, brother and brother-in-law. I also thank my little daughter whose smile refreshed my mind even at times of immense pressure. I extend my heartfelt thanks to Lily Pehi, my mother-in-law, and Manju madam, for their blessing and moral support. I want to thank Rajnish for his constant financial support and patience, without which I would not have succeeded this far.

My sincere thanks are due to all the people of NRHM office of Sonitpur, Nagaon and Sivsagar district of Assam and those people who helped me with the data collection during my survey. I offer sincere thanks to any other persons whose name could not be included in this list. In the absence of their help and support, this study would not have been completed.

At the end, I thank the almighty for giving me moral, strength and courage to carry out my work.
