

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research is a challenging journey which cannot be fulfilled without the help and inspiration of other people. So I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all the people who helped me in some way or the other in successfully completing my endeavour of getting a Doctorate degree. Though I may not be able to mention all the names in these few pages, I would like to acknowledge the key pillars who played an important role throughout my study.

Foremost, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my Supervisor Dr. Papori Baruah, Professor and Head of the Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University.

Thank you very much Ma'am, first of all, for giving me a chance to pursue Ph.D. under your guidance, secondly, for your patience and your untiring effort in making me complete this piece of work. At times it was tough but you were so patient with me that it made me feel so special and motivated me to work harder. I truly believe, that I could submit my thesis early due to your constant support. Thank you once again.

I also extend my sincere thankfulness to Professor Chandana Goswami and Professor Subhrangshu Sekhar Sarkar for providing timely advice and guidance through different phases of my research. My earnest gratitude also goes to all the faculty members of the Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University for their regular evaluation and for providing their valuable insights to my research. The staff of the Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University had been like a family to me and I thank all of them, Mr. Brindabon Borah, Mr. Suren Borah, Mr. Kushal Roy, Mr. Brighu Das and Mr. Tarun Jyoti Borah for all your help and support.

My gratitude also goes to the employees of the Department of Rural Development, Government of Arunachal Pradesh (especially all the BDOs and the PDs), for providing me the required data, without which my research would not have been possible. I am immensely thankful to Mr. Pakdo Ado Sir, for his immense support and encouragement. Whenever I visited the Department or required any help, he was always very positive and genuinely interested in helping me with whatever he can.

During my field survey I received immense support from various quarters without which it would have been a mammoth task to complete my research. First of all I thank all the respondents (People's Representatives and the people at village level) from all the six districts (East Kameng, Lower Subansiri, Papumpare, Tawang, Upper Subansiri and West Kameng) for co-operating with me and at times even allowing me to stay at their home. Secondly, I thank all the ADCs from all the six districts for providing me with accommodations during my survey. Here, I take the opportunity to mention few names who had helped me through my field survey and I am very grateful to all of them. Apra Uncle, Ms. Choikyong Pema, Dr. Chomu, Ms. Millo Nampi, Ms. Mobi Loyi, Mr. Rukpar Riddi, Mr. Taba Tebin, Mr. Tapak Dagam, Mr. Tilling Saha, a big thanks to all of you.

I am also grateful to the Libraries (Rajiv Gandhi University, Doimukh, NERIST, Dibrugarh University and Tezpur University) for providing me the required materials for my research and for extending necessary support whenever required.

I express my warm gratitude to my extended family i.e. all the Research Scholars of the Department of Business Administration (specially Mr. Pankaj Kumar and Ms. Lakhimi Jogendranath Chutia) and Ms. Soma Chakraborty from the Department of ECE for making my Ph.D. journey eventful and slightly easier.

My sincere gratitude also goes to Dr. R. M. Pant (Director, NIRD, Guwahati), for his constant guidance and motivation, not only in the field of research but also in other areas of life. He has always inspired me and is like a fatherly figure to me.

I would like to express my affectionate thankfulness to Mr. Rubu Tani for his constant and unconditional support, encouragement and motivation throughout the ups and downs of my research journey. Thank you for everything, thank you for being my rock support.

I extend my love to my family (who had been patiently bearing my chatter), for believing in me and for providing their immense love and support throughout my research work. Special thanks to my Daddy for never distinguishing between a boy and a girl and for giving me an opportunity to pursue my dream amidst the resistance of others. Thank you.

Lastly, thank you almighty Donyi-Polo for providing me the zeal to pursue and strength to complete my Ph.D. This is definitely a milestone in my life.
