

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I wish to thank my advisor Prof. Jayanta Kumar Sarma for pushing me to achieve more than I was comfortable with. I am grateful to him for giving me full freedom in research.

I wish to thank my co-supervisor Dr. Amit Pathak, for his endless patience, support and encouragement. I truly appreciate the time he has spent helping me.

This is the most befitting occasion for me to convey my heartfelt thankfulness to Prof. Ranjeev Misra of Inter-University Centre for Astronomy and Astrophysics (IUCAA) who helped me to keep my feet firmly on the ground. Without his ideas and support, the thesis would not have been feasible. Being an unique person I have ever met, he will always be a source of inspiration.

I sincerely thank Prof. Gulab Dewangan (IUCAA), for his valuable suggestions and help. I would like to thank IUCAA for providing the clean and hospitable working environment during my visit.

I am thankful to all the faculty members and staff of the Department of Physics, TU for help and valuable guidance. I am also grateful to the Principal and colleagues of my college (Hojai College) for their support.

This research has made use of observations obtained with XMM-Newton, an ESA science mission with instruments and contributions directly funded by ESA member states and the US (NASA).

Some of the data presented in this work were obtained from the Mikulski Archive for Space Telescopes (MAST). STScI is operated by the Association of Universities for Research in Astronomy, Inc., under NASA contract NAS5-26555. Support for MAST for non-HST data is provided by the NASA Office of Space Science via grant NNX09AF08G and by other grants and contracts.

It gives me immense pleasure to thank Dr. Anjanda Kumar Bhattacharyya, the person who has provided assistance in numerous way throughout my research work. I thank Dr. Manash Lochan Das for his inspiration and love. I am thankful to Bobby bau and babu for their amiable hospitality.

Special thanks to Tanveer, Mayuri, Nayanmoni, Namita, Sovan, Upamannyu, Ananya, Sourav, Mridusmita, Gauriba, Ranjitda (and to all whom I may forget at this moment) for their help and friendship.

I especially thank my wife Barnali, her emotional support, love, partnership and constant pushes make this work possible.

Finally, I would like to thank my family for the unconditional and uninterrupted support they give me, each of them by each own means and in each own way. Their support and love at all times is beyond measure, and I would not be in this position without their encouragement and faith in me. I offer my love to my little kids Simu and Barbee for keeping me smiling.
