It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to all who contributed in different ways to this research. Foremost, I thank all the participants of this research for their effort and time to help out with the research, I humbly acknowledge their contribution. I am greatly thankful to the almighty for giving me such strength and enabled me to accomplish this energy intensive and demanding work successfully.

At this very outset, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Tarun K. Maji, Professor, Department of Chemical Sciences, Tezpur University, for his supervision, advice, guidance from the very early stage of this research. Thank you sir, for your fatherly care, for giving me freedom, for the democratic style of functioning, for the trust and confidence on me, which helped me to work to the best of my ability. Thank you sir, for your honest feedback and constructive comments during our discussions that made all the more enriching. Moreover, thanks for the spontaneous acts of concern and support, whenever I was in need, even when in you were in trouble.

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to my DRC members, Professor A. J. Thakur Head, Department of Chemical Sciences and Professor K. P. Sarma, Department of Environmental Science, along with all the staffs of Tezpur University (TU) fraternity for the unprecedented help. I owe special gratitude to Prof. Mihir Kanti Chaudhuri, Ex Vice-Chancellor, Tezpur University for his help, support and encouragement.

I am grateful to all my teachers, lab-mates, all research scholars, the technical staffs of department of Chemical Sciences, for their tremendous help during the research. Special thanks to Bodhditya Das, from Defense Research Laboratory, Tezpur, Dr. Ratan Baruah,

Central University, Tezpur, without their support it was almost impossible to understand the research.

I must convey my deepest thanks to Pakiza, Prasanta, Sanchaita, Arup, Debojyoti, Homen, Dhruva, Debananda, Kumar, Little and many more for making my stay in the campus a pleasant one. The completion of this work would have been impossible without their help, encouragement, moral support and cooperation. I acknowledge Defense Research Laboratory, Tezpur, for providing Fellowship and other Instrumental facilities for carrying out my work smoothly.

I would like to acknowledge the reviewers and referees who accessed my work during the publication of the manuscripts and provided valuable appreciation and suggestions which helped me tremendously. They being the greatest critics of my research, I learned the many aspects to consider, further improving and consolidating the study.

At last but not least, I would like to acknowledge my Mother, Late father and family members, who supported and encouraged me to finish this research, for their fervent love and unfailing support
