

DECLARATION

I do hereby declare that the results penned in this thesis entitled “Porous Organic Polymers with Amide Functionality: Synthesis, Characterization and Applications in Organic Transformation Reactions” is the result of research work carried out solely by me in the Department of Chemical Sciences, Tezpur University, Assam under the supervision of Dr. Bipul Sarma, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemical Sciences, Tezpur University, India.

Due acknowledgements to all related data used from different sources in order to support my research findings have been made wherever necessary. All funding agencies (SERB, UGC and Tezpur University) and Department of Science & Technology (DST), Govt. of India have been duly acknowledged for providing research grants and Inspire fellowship to carry out my research work smoothly.
