

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very beginning, I thank Tezpur University for giving me the opportunity to pursue PhD and providing space for all round development. I must thank the University Grants Commission (UGC) for the fellowship (NET- JRF and SRF), without which the research would have been incomplete.

I consider myself extremely blessed and privileged to do my research under the supervision of Dr. Juri Gogoi Konwar, Assistant Professor, Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University. I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude for her efforts in helping me complete my research work under her scholarly guidance, despite of her hectic academic, administrative and familial obligations. I would like to place a record of sincere gratefulness to my sir, Prof. Debarshi Prasad Nath, Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University, for his assistance in many important aspects of my PhD. No amount of words is sufficient to acknowledge the invaluable guidance he has rendered to me during the course of my research. My deep sense of gratitude goes to Prof. Sunil Kumar Dutta, Head of the Department of Cultural Studies, and Prof. Pradip Jyoti Mahanta, former Head of the Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University for the valuable lessons, suggestions and help offered to me in every possible way while undertaking the research.

Heartfelt thanks to Dr. Madhurima Goswami, Associate Professor and all the Assistant Professors of the Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University, namely, Dr. Parasmoni Dutta, Dr. Mandakini Baruah, Dr. Jayanta Vishnu Das, Dr. Hashik N.K. and Dr. Moushumi Kandali, for their suggestions, support and encouragements throughout my research period. I am also grateful to Deepak da and Ashish da for helping me with all required official works getting done very fast, from the time of joining PhD till its completion.

I would specially like to record my profound sense of indebtedness to my Mama, Minu swargiari and Baba, Dizen swargiari for they have encouraged me in taking the decision of doing PhD and bear all the problems faced because of me, while pursuing it. I thank my brother Ringku, sister Jina and sister Jimina for their love and support all throughout.

I would like to thank all the NGO members, police officials, academicians, students and researchers, pastors, ojhas and village members of the field, who have helped me in collecting data for this research. My work would not have been successful without their valuable inputs. Ms. Pratibha Brahma, Mr. Preetam Brahma, Mira Daimary and her husband, Jelina Mochahary and her mother, Dharitri Basumatary, Deben Swargiary, Sunil Daimary, Sunsri Mainao Basumatary, Jwngma Swargiary, Pronoy Daimary, and Kenedy Narzary needs special mention of “thanks” for helping me with data and sometimes accommodating me at their place/house during my fieldwork. I express my humble gratitude to Mr. Rihon Daimary and Mr. Biren Swargiary for caring and supporting me in times of financial crisis.

Special thanks to Dr. Esther Daimary, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Tezpur University who helped me with positive vibes regarding research and guiding me to overcome problems whenever needed. I take the opportunity to thank Dr. Juri Dutta, Assistant Professor, Assamese Studies Centre, Tezpur University who gave me valuable suggestions during the hard times of my PhD period and build up new outlook in dealing with problems. I am also grateful to Dr. Dipika Nath Hazarika, Assistant Professor, Department of Electronics and Communications Engineering, Tezpur University for her support in many aspects of my research work.

I would like to thank Jayashree ba who motivated me to undertake a study on “a serious social issue of witch-hunting”. In addition, I thank Mousumi ba, Pratisha ba, Minakshi ba, Yamini ba, Rwisumwi ba, Julee ba, Reetamoni ba, Piyashi ba and Deepshikha Carpenter ba who showed me the significant path in studies and strengthen my ideas in doing this research.

My heartfelt thanks goes also to my friends, Dakter Esse, Wanlaya Namtham, Swikrita Dowerah, Tatongkala, Rituparna Hazarika, Bhupali Kashyap, Ananya Bonjyotsna, Dr. Darshana Liyanage, Tinam Borah, Ivy Daimary, Moa Jamir, Deepshikha Changmai, Shyamoshree Borah, Tenzine Yegha, Siwani Mech, Dr. Raisumai Daimary, Dr. Nobojit Hajowary, Nijwm Khungri Brahma and Boniface Basumatary because they commented on my research work that helped in shaping and improving my opinions. Their generous and steadfast support in many aspects of my research helped me come out with writing of the thesis successfully.
