

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure and joy to express my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Tapas Medhi, Assistant Professor, Department of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, Tezpur University, who has guided me throughout this work. Without his constant inspiration, encouragement and constructive criticism, the present investigation would not have been possible.

I would like to express my gratitude to my doctoral committee members, Dr Panchanan Puzari, Dept. of Chemical Sciences and Dr Santanu Sharma, Dept. of Electronics and Communication Engineering, Tezpur University, Assam for their kind advice and guidance during the tenure of my research work. Further, I would like to sincerely thank Santanu sir for providing me with excellent research facilities along with a competitive team-oriented environment during the fabrication of the sensor.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to former Vice-cancellers, Prof. M. K. Chaudhuri, and Prof. M. M. Sarma, and present Vice-cancellor, Prof V. K. Jain of Tezpur University for providing all the necessary facilities and atmosphere as the requirement of PhD degree.

I also express my sincere gratitude to the Chairperson and members of the Departmental Research Committee for their useful advice and encouragement during progress seminars and various other phases of my research. I would also like to offer my heartiest thanks to former Head of the Department (HoD), Prof. Sashi Barooah, Prof. Suvendra Kumar Ray and current HoD, Prof. Anand Ramteke for their guidance and help.

My sincere gratitude and thanks to Prof. N. N. Dutta, ex-deputy director, RRL-NEIST, Jorhat, Assam for critically reviewing my research work and for his valuable suggestions.

I am grateful to the Basin Manager, Head-INBIGS, and all the officials of INBIGS, ONGCL-Cinnamara, Jorhat, Assam for permission and help during the crude oil and oil-contaminated soil sample collections from the Borholla oil field, Jorhat, Assam.

Also, the financial assistance received as JRF and SRF from UGC BSR, in pursuing the present work is highly acknowledged.

I would like to acknowledge SAIC IIT-Guwahati, SAIC-TU, ONGC-Center for petroleum biotechnology, Glass blowing centre and infrastructure received from Dept. of Chemical Sciences and Physics, Tezpur University. Further, I acknowledge my gratitude to Dr Dipankar Kalita, technical officer, Department of FET for his help during the completion of my work.

I would also like to thank our departmental technical staff, Dr. K. Hazarika, Dr N. K. Bordoloi, P. Mudoj da, Samar da, Pranab da, Bania da, Pranita ba, Guna da and all other staff members for their help and support.

I am always thankful to my lab mates Pranjal Da, Saurav Da, Minhaz, Jyotirmoy and Samanwita for their constant support and suggestion throughout my PhD tenure. Further, I would also like to acknowledge former lab members Manab, Joy, Krishna, Amarendra, Parth, Padmini, Rashmi, Babee and Malaya for their support and help throughout my work.

I also sincerely acknowledge Lab members of power electronics lab, Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, Chinmayee, Sujan, Kritanjali, Arup, and Pranjal Da for their help and support throughout my research.

My special thanks to my dearest seniors, Dr Kuldeep Gupta, Dr Bhaskar Gogoi, and Dr Jyoti Prasad Saikia for their valuable guidance, and encouragement throughout my PhD life.

Further, I would also like to thank Dr. Chimanjita Phukan, Gauhati Medical College for her kind advice and encouragements. I also thank Dolly, Himjyoti, Pallavi and Kalyani the lab members from the Microbiology Department, Gauhati Medical College.

I also acknowledge my friends Saurav, Pankaj, Akash, Sumita, Debashree, Tarinee, Anuj, Debananda da, Bhargab, Priyanka and Asad for being part of my PhD tenure.

Special mention must be made to Babati, Sraddha and Minhaz for the constant support and encouragement throughout my work. I don't think I could have completed this journey without these three people.

The reason for my being and the reason for making me what I am are my "Deuta and Maa". I thank them for everything. They faced all the hardships to see me here in every endeavour of mine.

I thank all those people who helped me in many other ways yet whose name couldn't be mentioned.

(Dhruba Jyoti Sarma)
