This thesis is an outcome of a long journey which would not have been possible without the support, blessings, encouragement and love of many people who have been directly or indirectly involved with me. But, to put it into words, I would begin with my supervisor Dr. Dambarudhar Mohanta and express my sincere gratitude for his guidance, suggestions, motivation throughout in carrying out the research work. I am highly indebted to Prof. S. K. Dolui, Dr. P. K. Karmakar and Dr. S. K. Das, Doctoral Research Committee members for their valuable suggestions and advice all throughout. I am extremely indebted to the Vice-Chancellor, Tezpur University for giving me an opportunity to pursue Ph.D in this University.

I am thankful to Prof. Nilakshi Das, Head of the Department of Physics and all the faculty members for their inspiration which motivated me in carrying out the work. My ample appreciation goes to Scientific Officer, Dr. Kishore Baruah Sir and all the technical staff for arranging experimental set-ups throughout the exercise. I am also thankful to the non-teaching staff Narayanda and Patir da for their official assistance.

I acknowledge SAIC-TU; SAIF, NEHU, Shillong; IASST, Guwahati; Anton-Paar India Pvt. Limited, Gurugram and Department of Chemical Sciences, TU for extending different characterization facilities. I acknowledge the scientific staff of IUAC, New Delhi for providing good quality ion beam facility. The help and support from Dr. D. Kanjilal, Dr. A. Tripathi and Dr. P. K. Kulriya is gratefully acknowledged.

I am fortunate enough to have some wonderful fellow lab-mates: Swati, Samiran da, Rizwin ba, Manjit da, Nibedita ba, Runjun ba, Amrita, Aftab, Hemanga, Mahesh and Bhupali. I am blessed to have a wonderful group of friends/well-wishers: Dipankar, Bikash, Anjalu, Nilutpal, Madhurjya, Pragyan, Rituraj, Homen, Kiran, Abhijit, Animesh da, Anup da, Sudhangshu, Koushik, Moti, Litul, Lakhi, Archana, Happy, Nabadweep, Diganta, Sritam, Chandan, Manash, Mayuri, Saurav, Disha to name a few. Thank you all for your support and good wishes in times of need and always.

Last but not the least; I am thankful to Ma and Deuta, my elder sisters Dangar ba and Munu ba, my brother-in-laws Dangar vindew and Dhanjit vindew, Muna, Puku, my nephews Jintu and Nibir and all my family members who have been a great source of support, strength and love. Without their support and blessings, it would not have been possible in carrying out the work smoothly. Finally, I express my sincere gratitude to IUAC, New Delhi and CSIR, New Delhi for the financial grant and also providing me the golden opportunity to fulfil my dream.

And, above all, I thank the Almighty for being kind enough and for His blessings at every point of time.
