ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset it's my pleasant duty to acknowledge Dr. Priya Rajan Kumar, Associate Professor & Head, Department of law, Tezpur University, for giving me an opportunity to do my Dissertation entitled "Gender Equality in Police Administration: An Empirical Study to Examine the Role of Women Police in Tezpur Town" under his supervision and guidance. I sincerely extend my gratitude to him for his valuable and important suggestion from time to time which always provided me an inspiration without which this dissertation work would not have been completed. It is only because of his kindness encouragement and supervision that I was able to research a complex and difficult subject area such as Women Police and justify my research. In the midst of various preoccupation, Sir enthusiastically devoted much of his valuable time and energy and guide me patiently in the preparation and accomplishment of this Dissertation. Such a helpful approach from my guide was encouraging. I therefore express my heart full thanks to my guide for his persistent inspiration and unflinching supervision in preparation of this declaration.

I extend my thankfulness to Ms. Angel H. Syiem, Dr. Madhumita Acharjee, and Mr. Debajit Kumar Sarmah, Assistant Professors, Department of Law, Tezpur University, for their valuable suggestions.

I also offer my thankfulness to the whole staff of our Central Library, Jiri Women Hostel, and law Department, Tezpur University.

I am indebted to the various authors of the books and articles I consulted and referred to in the preparation of this Dissertation.

Last but not the least I would like to extend my thankfulness to my family members for their continuous encouragement, economic and mental support and to my friends who directly or indirectly helped me to complete this project.
