

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION

1.1	Introduction	1
1.1.1	Low student engagement	1
1.1.2	Declining student engagement at the period of transition from elementary to secondary level of education.....	2
1.1.3	Adversity of poor engagement on important student outcome variables	3
1.1.4	Gender inequality in terms of student engagement.....	6
1.1.5	Gender disparity in terms of students' achievement.....	7
1.1.6	Student engagement is sensitive towards several contextual factors.....	7
1.1.7	Student engagement is highly malleable through teacher engagement	8
1.1.8	The Self System Process Model: Examining links between perceived teacher engagement, student engagement, and their academic achievement	10
1.1.9	The Reduced Self-System Process Model introduced in this study	11
1.2	Theoretical framework	13
1.2.1	Self-determination Theory	13
1.2.2	Flow Theory.....	14
1.2.3	Theory of Involvement	14
1.3	Conceptual framework	15
1.3.1	Work engagement	15
1.3.2	Teacher engagement	16
1.3.3	Student engagement	17
1.4	Rationale of the study.....	18
1.5	Problem statement	21
1.6	Context of the research.....	22

1.7	Purpose statement.....	23
1.7.1	Research objectives.....	24
1.7.2	Hypotheses of the study	25
1.8	Operational definitions of the variables	28
1.9	Delimitations of the study	30
1.10	Significance of the study	30
1.11	Organization of the Thesis chapters	30
 CHAPTER TWO: REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE
2.1	Introduction	33
2.2	Review of related literature	33
2.2.1	Gender differences in student views of teachers’ classroom support and engagement	33
2.2.2	Gender gap in student engagement	36
2.2.3	Gender difference regarding students’ academic achievement	39
2.2.4	The explaining role of perceived teacher engagement on the association between students’ gender and their engagement.	42
2.2.5	Gender exerts moderation effect the association between teacher engagement and student engagement.....	44
2.2.6	Student engagement explaining the association between students’ gender and their achievement	47
2.2.7	Gender moderates the relationship between student engagement and academic achievement	50
2.2.8	Student engagement mediates the relationship between perceived teacher engagement and academic achievement	55
2.3	Critical analysis: Hypothesis development	57
2.3.1	Gender gap in student engagement and role (explaining role and differential role) of teacher engagement herein.....	57

2.3.2	Gender gap in academic achievement and role (explaining and differential) of student engagement herein	58
2.3.3	Explaining role of student engagement on the relationship between perceived teacher engagement and academic achievement	60
2.4	Emergent questions	60
CHAPTER THREE: METHODOLOGY OF THE STUDY
3.1	Introduction	61
3.2	Context and purpose of the study:.....	61
3.3	Roadmap of the Chapter:.....	63
3.4	Philosophical and methodological choices: The ‘Research Onion’ framework	64
3.4.1	Research paradigm and Research philosophy.....	65
3.4.2	Research approach	65
3.4.3	Methodological choices	65
3.4.4	Research strategy	66
3.4.5	Time horizon.....	67
3.4.6	Techniques and procedures:.....	67
3.5	Research design.....	67
3.5.1	Population, sampling procedures and sample of the study.....	71
3.5.2	Delimitations of the study.....	71
3.5.3	Measurements and Research instruments	72
3.5.4	Procedures of data collection	74
3.5.5	Data analysis strategy	75
3.6	Procedures for developing research tools.....	76
3.6.1	Development and standardization of student engagement in learning scale (SELS)	76

3.6.2	Development and standardization of perceived teacher engagement scale (PTES)	106
3.7	Limitations	133
CHAPTER FOUR: DATA ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION OF RESULTS
4.1	Introduction	135
4.2	Objective-wise data analysis	135
4.2.1	The gender difference in perceived teacher engagement of the students	135
4.2.2	The gender difference in student engagement of boys and girls	142
4.2.3	Gender gap in academic achievement of the students	148
4.2.4	Mediation effect of Perceived teacher engagement (viz. perceived cognitive-physical, perceived socio-emotional, and perceived pedagogical engagement) on the relationship between gender and student engagement	150
4.2.5	Moderation effect of students' gender on the relationship between perceived teacher engagement and student engagement	176
4.2.6	Mediation effect of student engagement (viz. cognitive, behavioral, and emotional engagement) on the relationship between students' gender and their academic achievement	237
4.2.7	Moderation effect of students' gender on the relationship between student engagement and their academic achievement	244
4.2.8	Mediation effect of student engagement (viz. cognitive, behavioral, and emotional engagement) on the relationship between students' Perceived teacher engagement and their academic achievement	263
CHAPTER FIVE: DISCUSSIONS AND IMPLICATIONS
5.1	Introduction	289
5.2	Discussions	289
5.2.1	Gender gap in perceived teacher engagement	289
5.2.2	Gender gap in student engagement	290

5.2.3	Gender gap in academic achievement.....	291
5.2.4	Explaining the gender gap in student engagement through their perceptions of teacher engagement	293
5.2.5	Differential role of perceived teacher engagement for gender differences in student engagement.....	294
5.2.6	Explanation of the gender difference in academic achievement through student engagement.....	295
5.2.7	Differential role of student engagement for gender gaps in students' academic achievement	296
5.2.8	Explaining role of student engagement on the relationship between teacher engagement and students' achievement.....	297
5.3	Implications of the study:.....	299
5.3.1	For teachers:.....	299
5.3.2	Implication for school psychologists	302
5.3.3	For the policy makers.....	302

CHAPTER SIX: MAJOR FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

6.1	Introduction	305
6.2	Major Findings	305
6.2.1	Gender imbalance in students' perceptions of teacher engagement in support of girls	305
6.2.2	Gender difference in student engagement in favoring girls.....	305
6.2.3	Gender inequality in academic achievement of the students favoring girls 305
6.2.4	Perceptions of teacher engagement as an explaining mechanism of gender difference in student engagement	306
6.2.5	The differential effect of students' perceptions of teacher engagement on boys' and girls' engagement.....	306

6.2.6	The role of student engagement in explaining the gender difference in academic achievement	308
6.2.7	The moderation effect of gender on the association between student engagement and academic achievement	309
6.2.8	The mediation effect of student engagement on the link between perceptions of teacher engagement and students' achievement	309
6.3	Conclusions	310
6.4	Limitations of the study.....	311
6.5	Suggestions for further researches	313
	Bibliography	315
