ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I offer my prayers and heartfelt gratitude to Mahabhairab Lord Shiva for His priceless blessings at every step of my life. Words fall short to express my indebtedness to my Maa Papa for their unconditional love, care, guidance, support and education which made me capable enough to join as a Ph. D candidate. Their unwavering patience and inspiration enlightened my journey. I am forever grateful to my supervisor Prof. Prasanta K. Das for his illuminating mentorship and valuable guidance. This research would not have been possible without his motivation, constructive inputs and constant support over the years. I express my heartiest thanks to Prof. Sravani Biswas for her helpful suggestions, enormous support, encouragement and motherly love at every stage during my research. I am also thankful to all the faculty members, non-teaching staff and research scholars of the Department of English for their valuable insights and constructive criticism.

I am extremely grateful to the Central Library, Tezpur University for the research materials and reading facilities vital to my Ph. D work. The Library fraternity has been very cooperative throughout. Special thanks to the Assistant Librarian Mr. Jitu Mani Das for being so helpful always. I am also thankful to National Library, Kolkata, The Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Kolkata and IIT Guwahati for permitting me to access relevant materials for my research.

I extend my deepest regards and love to my little sister Swarnashikha for being a pillar of strength and support throughout the journey. I am thankful to my grandmother Titli for her blessings and love. I am indebted to Mishtimashi and Mesho for their unwavering love and support and for being my refuge at Guwahati in the entire course of my Ph. D journey. I offer my warmest regards to all my beloved Guddy, my caring Mamis, cousins, relatives and well-wishers for their encouragement and faith in me.

Gayatri Baa, Anindita Baa, Rodali and Upasana Baa were my four pillars of strength in the university during my research. I can never thank them enough for being so kind, loving and helping whenever I needed them. Anindita Baa and her family have been my true support system in both Guwahati and Tezpur. Special thanks to Gayatri Baa for her selfless guidance, optimism and to Rodali for being the most cheerful, supportive and the sweetest little sister throughout. I am indebted to both for taking the pains of proofreading my thesis. I am grateful to Upasana Baa for the warm company and her hostel room that was a refuge for me amidst all chaos. I am indebted to Shibu Uncle, Sangeeta Aunty and Pakhi, Pihu for their unconditional love, care and cooperation in all these years of my Ph. D. They have been my extended family in Tezpur. I will also be forever grateful to Jyoti Aunty and Late Tejen Uncle for making me feel at home in Tezpur with their selfless love, blessings and warmth.

I am thankful to my precious friends Namrata and Anushka for being there always as my constant support system in every way. I express my heartiest gratitude to my beloved juniors Gaurab, Bonjyotsna, Prankrishna and my senior Raktima Baa for their love and unwavering faith in me. Heartfelt thanks to the fellow research scholars of my batch too. My deepest regards for my colleague Dr. Rupashree Paul for understanding me like an elder sister and immensely motivating me towards the later part of my Ph. D journey.

My deepest gratitude to Pobitora Women's Hostel for being home for the first three years of my Ph. D.

I am grateful to Sonu and Monu of Sonu Computers for printing and giving final shape to my thesis.
