Acknowledgment

It gives me immense pleasure to thank all the people who have been a part of this academic pursuit and personal journey, without whose assistance and support this research work would not have been possible. First and foremost, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Prof. (Dr.) Abhijit Bora for his gentle and assuring guidance on each and every step of this research. Providing me with academic and intellectual liberty, he actually led me towards areas of exploration and enquiry which I had not anticipated. Known for his affable and calm ways, Bora Sir, as we call him since our student days, has been a pillar of strength and support for me in this journey. Sir, I shall always remain indebted to you.

Further, I extend my heartfelt thanks to all the teaching as well as non-teaching staff of the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, Tezpur University for their support during the course of this research. I would take this occasion to specially thank Dr Manoj Deori, my immediate senior and till recently faculty here, for his brotherly suggestions and help at a critical juncture of this research. Additionally, I would like to thank Dr. Joya Chakraborty mam for her pugnacious interactions with scholars of the department during progress seminars which helps in fine tuning of ideas and concepts. Other teachers of the department have been equally helpful in my time here at the campus as a regular scholar. I would also like to remember on this occasion, (Late) Dr P. Anbarasan, who quietly motivated and inspired many young scholars like me to take research as a passion project. Sir, I dearly miss you wherever you are. Additionally, I express my earnest gratitude to all my fellow research scholars in the department who have shared their insights with me in discussions during my interactions with them. I would also like to acknowledge the library facilities at the university as they were truly a gem as in that it never failed to evoke ideas on every visit to its vicinities.

Back in home my town Jorhat, my close group of friends and family members have stood by me during this journey, especially Dr. Bidyut Bora and Ankur Rajkumar, my brothers, so a big thanks to all of you. As I spent the last few months writing, that was most needed. I especially thank my departmental colleague at Assam Women's University Dr Suryya Kumar Chetia for our discussions on the state of media in Assam. Finally, I would like to remember my late parents and grandmother on this occasion as they always pushed me in their quiet ways towards bigger dreams.
