Acknowledgements

I would first like to express my deepest gratitude to my family. This journey would not have been possible without my parents, Allen Brooks and Manjula Choudhary Brooks, who believed in me and supported me. Because of their undeterred faith in me and continuous motivation, I could dream this big and achieve this milestone in life. The unconditional support and help I received from my husband, Ankur Yadav, has helped me in my journey, and without his help, data analysis and proofreading of my work would have been impossible. Also, my sister Tasha Brooks was my source of comfort and motivation when I needed it the most during this journey.

Next, I sincerely would like to thank Dr. Debasish Mohapatra, my supervisor and Associate Professor of English at Tezpur University, who pushed me to the limits of my potential. His honest reviews, insightful observations, and constant guidance helped me bring coherence to my thesis. And would extend my humble regards to the professors, administration and all members of Tezpur University who helped me in my journey by supporting me through their guidance and aided my work with the institutional fellowship.

I would like to acknowledge and thank the participants for their cooperation, all the six institutions and their management for their permission and help, the British Council Library (Delhi), The English and Foreign Languages University (Hyderabad campus and Shillong campus), CLIL@ India centre (Manipal) for granting me access to their resources and finding informative materials that aided my research.

I also express my heartfelt gratitude to Ayat Tayebulla (Product Manager, Healthigo), Porosha Sonowal (Assistant Professor, PDUAM Dalgaon), Dr. Sonali Singha, Manisha

Das (PhD Research Scholar, Tezpur University), Priyanka Mullick (Instructional Designer, Tesseract Learning), Dr. Batoul Khoja (Lecturer, Cihan University), Saji Joseph (Director, Amenta Publications), Bijoy Abraham (Associate Director, Amenta Publications), Alphy Thomas (Academic Manager, Amenta Publications) who have constantly helped and supported me during this PhD journey. They have always motivated me to strive for excellence, and I am fortunate to have their support in my life.

Lastly, I would like to extend my gratitude to my relatives, friends, co-scholars, juniors, and hostel mates, who were a source of respite, inspiration and comfort from the arduous routine of a struggling Ph.D. scholar.
