ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my humble duty to convey my gratitude and indebtedness to everyone concerned to my present work. I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Chandan Kumar Sharma, Professor, Department of Sociology, Tezpur University for his expert guidance and uplifting inspiration. Without which the present work could not have come to light. For his keen interest, valuable discussion, constructive criticism, timely advice and able guidance, it has been possible on my part to plan, review and give shape to my dissertation work.

I am also highly thankful to Dr. K. Kikhi (Head of the Department) and all the faculty members of our department who have always lend their helping hand to me and have enriched my work with their valuable insights, suggestions and guidance.

I would like to offer my sincere thanks to Purna Konyak who has not only encouraged me but also guided me in every step of this research.

I am especially thankful to Junmani Konyak, Nijara Konyak, Kamala Mahanta, Ranjumani Mahanta, Bonita Buragohain, villagers of Naga Gaon Model Village, Village Development Committee, ASHA worker of the village, Anganwari worker, teachers of village school and neighbouring villagers for their kind cooperation during the time of data collection.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank my parents, Sister Haripriya Dutta, brother Ujjal Protim Dutta and friend Dinesh Mishong for their constant help and support for the fulfilment of my research work.

Above all I would like to thank God for the blessings and patience without which I would not be able to achieve what I had endeavoured.
