ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my heartiest thanks and profound gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Pankaj Kalita, Assistant Professor, Department of Energy, Tezpur University, for his utmost help and motivation in all stages of this work. His sound guidance has taught me the rudiments of the subject, helped me overcome challenges and defend the results in the best possible way. The most important aspect that I have learnt from my interactions with him is the technique of conducting a successful research in a time-bound frame. I am indebted to him for the fruitful culmination of this work and look forward to continue his guidance in future.

I am immensely grateful to Prof. D. Deka, Head, Department of Energy, Tezpur University, for his official initiatives, kind guidance and the most generous support offered in times of need. His invaluable teachings, proactive suggestions, motivation towards perfection and rigorous supervision have instilled in me the discipline to persistently perform towards my goal.

I would like to offer my warm regards and sincere thanks to Prof. D. C. Baruah, Dr. R. Kataki, Mr. S. Mahapatra, Mr. P. K. Choudhury of the Department of Energy for their invaluable teachings and kind guidance during the entire M. Tech. Course.

I would like to unfailingly acknowledge the valuable suggestions, help and assistance of Mr. Biswajit Gogoi, Mr. Tapanjit Bora and Mr. Troilokya Lahon of the Department of Energy.

Special thanks to my colleagues during project Monishi Nahardeka, Sarungbam Romen Singh, Rajib Gogoi, Manash Hazarika, and Surajit Pal for their kind co-operation and moral support for the timely completion of this work.

I also thankful to Dr. Jiten Ch. Dutta, Professor and Head, Department of Electronics and Communication (ECE) for allowing me to do some of the experimental works in the design Lab of the ECE Department.

The support of the staff, senior colleagues and all my friends of the Department of Energy has made my work a lot easier and comfortable. I heartily acknowledge them for their valuable presence and interactions.

Last, but not the least, my indebtedness remains towards my family members for their constant encouragement and support in all possible respects throughout the duration of my M.Tech. Programme.
