Acknowledgement

Conducting this project has been both challenging as well as fulfilling. This project could not have been completed without the help and support of many people.

At the outset, I would like to offer my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Mr Amiya Kumar Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Tezpur University. His emphases on self-training as well as his creative ideas have made conducting this project exciting and stimulating. I would also like to extend my gratitude to the other faculty members of the Department of Sociology for taking out time to help me in my project.

I would also like to offer my gratitude to Dr Rabin Deka, HoD, Department of Sociology, Tezpur University; for allowing me to conduct this project.

I would like to offer my indebtedness to Mr Rajat Baran Mahanta, Registrar, Krishna Kanta Handiqui State Open University; and Dr Alak Kumar Buragohain, Registrar, Tezpur University; for taking out time from their respective busy schedules for me to conduct the interviews.

My heartfelt gratitude also goes to Mr Faraz Ali Ahmed, Co-ordinator, Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College Study Centre of KKHSOU; and Mr Devicharan Gautam, Co-ordinator, Tezpur College Study Centre of KKHSOU; for allowing me to conduct my fieldwork in their respective study centres, as well as for giving me the necessary information on their respective study centres.

My word of thanks also goes to the interviewed teachers and students of Krishna Kanta Handiqui State Open University and Tezpur University for their willingness to spare time and energy for answering my questions.

Last, but not the least, thanks also go my classmates for their friendship and support.
