

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A dissertation cannot be completed individually. It takes a lot of people and their consistent support to make the dissertation. A lot of people contributed directly and indirectly to complete my dissertation project. I express my sincere gratitude to all these who have helped me to successfully complete my dissertation.

I owe my profound gratitude to my Supervisor Dr. Sumesh, S.S who despite of his busy schedule took keen interest and guided me all along till the completion of my dissertation by providing all the necessary information and correction for developing a good dissertation.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Kedilezo Kikhi, Head, Department of Sociology for extending all the support to conduct the study. I also would like to acknowledge the guidance and support provided by the members of the faculty of sociology department.

I would also like to my deep sense of gratitude to research scholar Purabi ba and my friend Sayanika for their advice, cooperation, suggestion, guidance, and support throughout the dissertation work.

I would also like to offer my sincere gratitude to office staff, Tezpur University for their support and kind heartedness, while I pushed them for the necessary data for my study. My thanks are also due to all the respondents of the study, whose observations are the key strength of this study,

I would not forget to remember my parents and my brother for their constant guidance, encouragement and support.
