ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I would like to thank Dr. Rabin Deka, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Sociology, Tezpur University for granting me permission to undertake this project.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Sumesh S.S. for his constant guidance and support. Without his helpful suggestions and encouragement it would have been impossible for me to complete this dissertation. I would also like to thank other faculty members of the Department for their constructive criticism and assistance.

I also thank the officials of the Panchmile New Primary Health Centre, Panchmile and the villagers who helped me immensely during the fieldwork. I am grateful to them for their constant love and moral support, and pray to the Almighty for their well being.

Finally, I thank my friends, especially Mishik Sharma, Sagar Behera and Jharna Saikia for their help and concern.

I am deeply grateful to all the above mentioned people for their cooperation and support.
