ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my heartiest gratitude and sincere most thanks to my supervisor Sadhan Mahapatra, Assistant Professor, Department of Energy, Tezpur University, for his utmost help and continuous support for the entire duration of this project. His valuable guidance has helped me overcome challenges and justify the results in the best possible way. I shall be ever thankful to him for his guidance at each and every step of this project and look forward to continue his guidance in future.

I am thankful to Prof. D. C. Baruah, Head, Department of Energy, Tezpur University, for his support and relevant suggestions during the entire project period. I would like to offer my warm regards and sincere thanks to the faculty members of the Department of Energy, viz., Prof. S. K. Samdarshi, Prof. D. Deka, Dr. R. Kataki, Mr. P. K. Choudhury and Mr. P. Kalita for their invaluable teachings and kind guidance during the entire M. Tech. Programme. I am also thankful to Prof. D K Bhattacharyya, Dean, School of Engineering, for extending his help and support whenever required.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Manoj Kumar Singh, Post Doctoral Fellow, University of Liege, Belgium, for his kind guidance and the support offered in times of need which helped me in timely completion of the project. I would like to thank Mr. Dwipen Konwar, Assistant Professor, GIMT, Tezpur, Assam for his valuable teachings and guidance during my project work.

I am very thankful to the Regional Meteorological Centre, Guwahati, Assam, India for the kind cooperation and support during my project work.

I am immensely thankful to the members of Energy Efficiency, Building Energy and Biomass Gasification Laboratory. Palash for his kind help and support whenever required; Plabita, Devashree, Bismita and Sidhartha for their co-operation and moral support during my entire project.

I would like to acknowledge all my friends, seniors and the staff of the Department of Energy for their kind support and interactions that made my work a lot easier and convenient.

Lastly, but never the least, I shall remain ever grateful to my family members for their constant encouragement and never ending support throughout the duration of my M. Tech. Programme.
