ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the valuable contribution offered to me by my Supervisor Dr, Sougata Saha, assistant Professor, Department of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, Tezpur University, Tezpur, Assam, for his continuous guidance and encouragement throughout the period of the project. His meticulous ideas and patience has helped me bring the best out of me.

I am grateful to Prof. S. Baruah, HOD, Department of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, Tezpur University, Tezpur, Assam and Department of Biotechnology, Government of India for providing me support and facilities required for the project work. I also thankful to all faculty members of Department of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology.

I gratefully acknowledge the active co-operation, affection and encouragement I got from my parents.

I would also like to thank all of my friends for the help and support I received during the course of the project work.
